Strategic and Tactical Technology Consultant

Clear Vision

Effective Plans

Innovative Solutions

“As an IT Leader I work with organizations who are facing significant or critical change. As a seasoned facilitator, I collaborate with key stakeholders to create a vision and then implement it.”

Whether facilitating strategic planning with IDPM or implementing a 10-bank merger with Symcor, I see it right and then get it done.

Testimonials

“[I am] taking control of my business direction from a visionary perspective. I now feel empowered with this knowledge.” Chris Rumble, CEO IDPM, Sydney's leading fitout specialists

“[Kirk] is a true professional and a pleasure to work with, I would consider him an excellent addition to any team.” Brad Downes, Sr Program Director, Symcor, Canada's leading financial processing services provider

The value I bring

I “hit the ground running” given my proven ability to:

- quickly identify pain points and their root cause and develop long-term solutions
- translate business priorities into actionable strategies
- be highly adaptable – I have worked in many industries
- facilitate inclusive, engaging discussions that lead to next steps
- provide cross-functional expertise, from strategic to operations to IT.

How I work

I step into organizations to:

- fill an IT leadership vacancy on an contract basis,
- facilitate business changes to become address new business needs of an organization,
- assist in breaking through a glass ceiling, whether revenue or market share, increasing corporate equity.

My background

I am a focused, highly adaptable and energetic IT Management Consultant. With over 30 years’ experience managing projects, I have assumed management roles such as CIO for a worldwide non-profit and General Manager for 40-person software company.

I like the tough assignments -- complex, high-risk and mission critical. I am a strong implementer with a solid understanding of both business and technology. I assist companies to see it right and then get it done.
